PORTO RICANS ARE NOT CITIZENS

New York, Oct. 8.—A decision has been handed down in the United States Circuit Court by Judge Lacombe, in which he holds that a citizen of Porto Rico is not a citizen of the United States and as such entitled to land here without interference from the immigration laws, but is, the insular decisions notwithstanding, an alien within the meaning of the law.

The matter came before Judge Lacombe on the application for a writ of habeas corpus sworn out on behalf of Isabelle Gonzales, a native Porto Rican woman, who arrived in New York August 21 last. She was detained by the immigration authorities on the ground that she was an undesirable alien. She was ordered deported, but a well-to-do aunt and uncle living on Staten Island secured attorneys to get her released through habeas corpus.

"The only question for discussion," reads the opinion, "is whether petitioner is an alien. The Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States provides that all persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States. The petitioner was by birth an alien, and unless she has since in some appropriate way been naturalized she is still an alien. There is no suggestion that she was ever naturalized under the general laws regulating the admission of alien citizens. The treaty of Paris, unlike earlier treaties which dealt with Louisiana, Florida, California and Alaska, did not undertake to make native born citizens of Porto Rico citizens of the United States. It expressly provides that the civil rights and political status of the native inhabitants of the territories coming to the United States should be determined by Congress."

Hawaiian Girl in New York Divorce

New York, Oct. 7. — The suit of Helen A. Johnson against Carl A. Johnson for absolute divorce came up before Supreme Court Justice Marean in Brooklyn today. The couple were married in Philadelphia in 1890. A woman named Hilma of Brooklyn and Louisa Hart, a half-breed girl of the island of Oahu, Hawaii, are named as co-respondents. The defendant is an engineer.

Testimony was taken by a commission to the effect that in 1898 Johnson lived in a cottage in Beretania street, Kahuku plantation, Kahuku, Island of Oahu, with the Hart girl, who was of surpassing beauty. They were frequently seen together at the seaside resort known as Sans Souci, Justice Marean, after reading the papers, marked on them "Jurisdictional facts require further proof."

The Department of Public Works will immediately repair all the buoys in the harbor. They will be repainted, this in preparation for the coming stormy weather of winter.
